Summary of Month Activities

6/9/2024

On Sunday, June 9th, 2024, at about 10:15 AM, UQP deputies received a broadcast of a subject wanted for a simple robbery reported to be at 717 Canal Street. Upon arrival, it was quickly learned by responding deputies that the suspect, a white male attired in black shorts and a white t-shirt named Anthony, was located in the rear loading dock of the building. Deputies decided to approach from Iberville Street via the Acme Oyster loading dock to prevent the suspect from having a route of escape. Deputies observed the subject, at which time, approached and successfully took the suspect into custody without incident. A subsequent search revealed the male to be in possession of a white powder substance consistent with cocaine. The arrested subject was then handed over to NOPD officers, at which time a name check was conducted of the arrested subject. It was then additionally learned that Anthony had an active warrant for simple robbery. NOPD transported the subject to central lockup for booking.

6/14/2024

On Friday, June 14th, 2024, at about 8:45 AM, UQP Deputy Madrigal, while on routine foot patrol, received a broadcast via NOPD frequency 8 of a 103M (mental) causing a disturbance at 730 St. Louis Street. Upon arrival, the perpetrator was observed throwing objects at the business resulting in all the front door glass being broken. Dep. Madrigal then approached and detained the subject without any incident. Moments later NOPD arrived on scene to assist. Upon placing the detained female in the vehicle, the arrested subject began violently kicking the rear windows in an apparent attempt to shatter them. Due to these circumstances, the arrested subject was transported to UMC for psychiatric evaluation before being transported to lockup for booking.

6/24/2024

On June 24th at approximately 7:36 AM, UQP Deputy Madrigal, while on foot patrol in the 100 block of Royal Street, was flagged down by the manager of Walgreens located at 134 Royal Street. The manager advised Deputy Madrigal of a shoplifting incident that occurred just moments ago. The suspect was described as a barefoot white male in possession of stolen personal hygiene products. The deputy immediately located the suspect at the intersection of Royal and Iberville Streets carrying a bag filled with merchandise consistent with the manager's description. Upon detaining the suspect, Walgreens management immediately identified the individual as the perpetrator of the shoplifting. The arrested subject, identified as Michael Steven John, was in possession of merchandise valued at $178.58. Upon further investigation, it was learned that the arrested subject had outstanding warrants from Florida for failure to appear, as well as a sexual offense from California. NOPD assisted in transporting the perpetrator to central lockup for booking.
