10/3/2025

On Friday, October 3rd, 2025, at approximately 11:30 AM, Deputies Loy Madrigal and Joseph Lodwick were on vehicle patrol in the French Quarter when they received a complaint via telephone call regarding a group of individuals aggressively soliciting passersby in front of businesses located at the corner of Decatur and Bienville Streets. Upon arrival, deputies observed four individuals wearing ACLU-branded vests and each carrying what appeared to be a tablet, positioned on the four corners of Decatur and Bienville Streets. The individuals were seen engaging with pedestrians consistent with solicitation activity. Deputies approached one of the solicitors and advised them that a complaint had been made about their actions in front of local businesses. Deputies requested that the group relocate to another location out of courtesy to the business owners. The solicitors refused, stating that they had a permit which allowed them to operate as long as they were at least six feet away from business entrances. Deputies again asked them to move as a professional courtesy. One of the solicitors agreed to move an additional two feet away from the doorway. Deputy Madrigal requested to see proof of the permit they claimed to have. The group presented a document issued by the Louisiana Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, dated October 11, 2024, confirming registration of New Canvassing Experience Inc. as a professional solicitor. Deputy Madrigal contacted Ms. Chasity Hastings with the Attorney General's Office, who confirmed that the document is not a permit, but merely a confirmation of registration as required by Louisiana law for professional solicitors. Ms. Hastings further advised that this registration does not authorize solicitation within any city jurisdiction and referred deputies to the City of New Orleans for permitting authority. Based on this information, Deputy Madrigal advised the solicitors to cease operations immediately until they could produce a valid solicitation permit issued by the City of New Orleans.

10/10/2025

On Friday, October 10th, 2025, deputies observed the same organization (New Canvassing Experience Inc.) conducting solicitation again at the corner of Conti and Royal Streets. Deputies approached and requested to see their permit. The solicitors produced a document titled "Certificate of Registration" from the City of New Orleans Department of Finance/Bureau of Revenue, dated October 7, 2025, listing their business address as 1526 Berlin Rd., Cherry Hill, NJ 08003-3623. Deputy Madrigal contacted the City of New Orleans Department of Finance and spoke with a representative who verified that the document provided by the solicitors was not a solicitation permit, but a tax registration certificate only. The representative further advised that an Occupational License or Solicitation Permit must still be obtained for lawful solicitation within city limits. Deputy Madrigal again instructed the solicitors to shut down their operations immediately until they obtained a valid solicitation permit. Deputies also warned that any further solicitation without proper authorization would result in enforcement action and possible summons for the following municipal violations: MCS-19937 §150-953 – No Occupational License and MCS-19937 §150-726 – Nonpayment of City Sales Tax.

10/7/2025

On Thursday, October 7th, 2025, at approximately 11:55 AM, Deputies Madrigal and Lodwick were on vehicle patrol in the 900 block of North Peters Street when they were flagged down by a New Orleans Police Department (NOPD) officer requesting assistance with a disturbance involving a homeless subject accompanied by a dog. Upon arrival, deputies observed a male individual, later identified as James Harold Vickery, who was being confrontational toward the NOPD officer while standing near the subject with the dog. Deputy Madrigal advised Mr. Vickery multiple times to refrain from interfering with the ongoing police investigation. Despite several verbal warnings, Mr. Vickery refused to comply and continued to cause a disturbance, drawing the attention of bystanders in the area. Due to his continued interference and disruptive behavior, Deputy Madrigal detained Mr. Vickery and advised him of his Miranda rights. Mr. Vickery was transported to the NOPD 8th District Station for identity verification. After verifying his identity, Mr. Vickery was issued a municipal summons for the following violations: Municipal Code 54:450 – Interfering with a Police Investigation and Municipal Code 54:403 – Disturbing the Peace. Mr. Vickery was notified to appear in Municipal Court on November 12, 2025, at 9:00 AM, Section 100.

10/15/2025

On Wednesday, October 15th, 2025, at approximately 10:15 AM, Deputies Madrigal and Lodwick were on vehicle patrol in the French Quarter when they observed a group of individuals actively soliciting pedestrians at the corner of Conti and Royal Streets. The group identified themselves as representatives of a parenthood organization. Deputies approached the solicitors and requested documentation authorizing them to conduct solicitation activities within the City of New Orleans. One of the solicitors produced a document issued by the State of Louisiana, Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, dated December 12, 2024, addressed to Heroes Canvassing, LLC, located at 1011 Lady Nashville Dr., Apt. 120, Hermitage, TN 37076. The letter, signed by Attorney General Liz Murrill and Chasity Hastings of the Public Protection Division, Consumer Protection Section, confirmed that Heroes Canvassing, LLC was registered as a professional solicitor with the Attorney General's Office, valid until December 12, 2025. Based on prior verification from the Attorney General's Office during a similar incident involving another organization (New Canvassing Experience Inc. / ACLU solicitors), Deputies Madrigal and Lodwick recognized that this type of document is not a solicitation permit, but merely a confirmation of professional solicitor registration. The registration does not authorize solicitation activities within city limits and does not replace the requirement for a City of New Orleans solicitation or occupational license permit. Deputies Madrigal and Lodwick advised the solicitors that they were not permitted to conduct solicitation within the City of New Orleans, including the French Quarter, until they obtained a valid permit from the City of New Orleans Department of Finance. The group was instructed to cease all solicitation activities immediately. Deputies further advised that any continued solicitation without a valid city-issued permit would result in enforcement action, including the issuance of municipal summonses for the following violations: MCS-19937 §150-953 – No Occupational License and MCS-19937 §150-726 – Nonpayment of City Sales Tax.
