2/18/2026

On Wednesday, February 18th, 2026, at approximately 10:30 AM, Deputies Loy Madrigal and Joseph Lodwick were on routine vehicle patrol in the area of Esplanade Avenue and Decatur Street. While in the area, deputies observed a group of individuals congregated along the side of the building of Checkpoint Charlie's on Decatur Street. Deputies further observed a Black male subject sitting on a folding chair who appeared to be separating a white substance into portions from a plastic bag. Deputies exited their vehicle to make contact with the subject for questioning. Upon noticing the deputies, the subject stood up and began walking away. Deputy Madrigal verbally commanded the subject to stop, advising him that deputies only wanted to speak with him. The subject refused to comply and fled on foot, resulting in a brief foot pursuit. During the pursuit, the subject tripped and fell, striking a metal trash can located in front of Checkpoint Charlie's. As a result of the fall, the subject sustained a laceration to the right side of his eyebrow. The subject continued to resist but was eventually detained with the assistance of another police officer from the nearby museum, identified as Officer Michael Vonbieberstien. Deputy Madrigal requested EMS through dispatch due to the subject's injury. A pat-down search incident to detention was conducted by Deputy Madrigal, during which a plastic bag containing a white substance was recovered from the subject. U.S. currency was also recovered during the search. The subject was advised of his Miranda rights and identified as Greg Irowoin Williams. He was subsequently transported to the 8th District station for further processing. The recovered substance was field-tested and yielded a positive result for methamphetamine.
