4/28/2026

On Tuesday, April 28, 2026, at approximately 1:17 PM, Deputy Conner Berthelot, a member of the Orleans Parish Sheriff's Office, while working an approved off-duty detail for the Upper Quarter Patrol, was dispatched to 215 Royal Street in reference to a Simple Battery (Signal 35) involving an unknown black female and an employee of Fischer-Gambino, identified as Christine Martin. Upon arrival, Deputy Berthelot observed a computer monitor visibly damaged on the employee desk where Ms. Martin was seated. Deputy Berthelot was then directed by the business owner, Laurie Little, to review the store's surveillance footage. Upon viewing the video, Deputy Berthelot observed an unknown black female, wearing a black shirt, black shorts, and carrying a black backpack, enter the business at approximately 12:32 PM. The female immediately proceeded to an employee-only area located in the bottom left-hand section of the store. The surveillance footage showed the female removing various items from a table located directly behind Ms. Martin's workstation, including food items and other miscellaneous objects. At approximately 12:33:19 PM, the female was observed accessing Ms. Martin's workstation and removing additional unknown items, which she concealed in her arms. Shortly thereafter, Ms. Martin returned from the rear of the business and immediately confronted the female. At approximately 12:34:14 PM, during the ensuing struggle, the female pushed Ms. Martin, causing her to fall to the ground. The female then turned toward the exit and forcefully pushed a ViewSonic desktop monitor off the desk, causing it to fall onto the floor. Deputy Berthelot subsequently obtained a statement from Ms. Martin. Ms. Martin stated that while walking across the sales floor toward the front desk, she observed the unknown female inside the employee-only area near a box used to store cash and customer receipts. Ms. Martin observed the suspect opening the box and immediately ordered her to leave. As Ms. Martin approached, she noticed the suspect holding several items, including a pack of cigarettes belonging to her. Believing the suspect had also taken items from the cash box, Ms. Martin grabbed the items from the suspect's hands. Ms. Martin advised that the suspect resisted and attempted to pull the items away. During the struggle, the suspect pushed Ms. Martin, causing her to fall to the ground. Ms. Martin further stated that the suspect was also holding a small white box, approximately three inches long and one inch thick, which Ms. Martin determined belonged to the suspect and returned to her. Ms. Martin stated that Laurie Little heard the commotion and came to the front of the store, yelling at the suspect to leave. At that time, the suspect pushed the computer monitor from the desk before fleeing the business on foot in an unknown direction. Ms. Martin complained of minor pain to her hip and knee as a result of the fall but declined medical attention at the scene. The interview was concluded at approximately 1:34 PM. Deputy Berthelot then canvassed the surrounding area in an attempt to locate the suspect but was unsuccessful. Photographs of the suspect were subsequently disseminated to other members of the French Quarter Detail and the Orleans Parish Sheriff's Office in an effort to identify and locate the individual, who remains unknown at this time. At approximately 4:20 PM Deputy Berthelot and Detective Neil Madrigal were conducting a proactive patrol in the 200 block of Royal Street when Detective Madrigal spotted the female suspect walking in front of the Fisher Gambino shop. When ordered to stop, the female then proceeded to flee from both Deputy Berthelot and Detective Madrigal. After a brief struggle, the deputies were able to subdue the resisting subject and place her in the back of a marked patrol car. The female was then transported to the 8th District station where she gave her name as Christina Pittman, and was booked under the following charges into the Orleans justice center: 14:35 Simple Battery, 14:56 Simple Criminal Damage, 14:59 Criminal mischief, and 14:108 Resisting an officer.

Lieutenant Damon Harris of the NOPD advised that two individuals were actively engaged in the unlawful sale of nitrous oxide in the area. Sergeant Jones and Deputy Berthelot parked their marked patrol vehicle nearby and proceeded on foot to investigate. Detective Michael Gil advised that he had observed a black male wearing a black T-shirt with an orange graphic on the back, black shorts, and a gray baseball cap, attempting to sell balloons containing nitrous oxide to members of the general public. Lieutenant Harris then advised via telephone that this individual had been observed participating in the illegal sale of nitrous oxide. The subject was identified as Thompson and was detained without incident. He was placed in the rear of a marked Orleans Parish Sheriff's Office patrol vehicle for transport.

Deputy Berthelot then canvassed the surrounding area for the second suspect. Approximately one block away, Deputy Berthelot and Sergeant Jones located a male attempting to conceal his identity by changing articles of clothing. Both Sergeant Jones and Deputy Berthelot then detained the 2nd subject who was identified as Clarence Shelly of Georgia. Detective Gil responded to the location and made a positive identification of the subject, who was later identified as Clarence Shelley. Both Clarence Shelley and Thompson were arrested and transported to the Orleans Justice Center, where they were booked for the illegal sale and possession of nitrous oxide equipment, in violation of the City of New Orleans Municipal Code.
